The 4ZERO Cuff is the most advanced flexible polymer handcuff on the market and is used by select police and law enforcement agencies who demand the strongest and most durable product available. Now, the same material used to manufacture the 4ZERO Cuff is available in a line of extremely durable cable ties designed to perform and hold their strength in extremely dry environments and in temperature extremes from 30 degrees below to over 400 degrees Fahrenheit — conditions that can leave normal nylon cable ties brittle and broken.
